It seems like a lifetime has passed since we last talked. We sure were different people back then weren't we? We were lost in ourselves, I know that now. But I still think of you from time to time, especially in the months of Winter. Do you ever think of me? Man: In these passing days, Winter brings her snow with her, drifting along, telling the story of her death and her loneliness ... Man: Do you ever think of me? I bet you're busy with your new life now. I'm just sitting here alone, by myself, thinking of you. Woman Man: Do you ever think of me? I bet you're busy with your new life. I'm just sitting here alone, by myself, thinking of you. 2. Winter 3:29 Music by jps* Vocals Lyrics by Tiffani Marsing K ... here we go Never ever want to go Never ever never ever please don't make me ever go Never ever never ever please don't make me ever go It's cold it's very cold it's too damn cold Even my coat can't keep me warm 'cause it's so cold Have you looked outside today? The snow is deep the sky is grey There's no way I'm walking out this door no way I wanna stay I told you never ever want to go Let's stay inside I never ever I'll never ever want to go If I had a car it wouldn't be a fight But I wrecked it on a slick and snowy night Now I ride the bus to work And I must walk to catch the train It's not the life of glamour, glitz or even fame. No one knows my name ... I just wanna' stay home It's so cold Look at all the snow Grab my scarf This moment ... F* the bus ... I'm staying home.

Going to war with nothing to fight for Killing everyone We just keep on keep on People die in vain Dying everywhere Nothing seems to change Hark! How the bells, sweet silver bells, All seem to say Throw your cares away Though I can't help but to think to myself What about the End of Days? What about the End of Days? Ding dong ding dong End of Days? All we can do, live the best we can Try and forget how to be sad Listen to the trees, listen to the wind Get down on my knees, pray for Him to bring Bring about the End of Days ... Bring about The Revelations ... What about the End of Days? What about the End of Days? Ding dong ding dong End of Days?

I Read It In The Paper 3:21 Beat Arrangement by jps* Spoken Word Performance by The Squirrel So sad to me that people get that bleeped up What does the brown mean? There were these people and they had way too many animals And the animals were all dying. There were bones under the bed! And I swear this is true because I Read It In The Paper And the paper tells you everything Especially in the United States I love the United States Media I love America, America's Media? So accurate ... adequate Thank God for TV Thank God for TV Thank God for TV I love to watch the evening news. The weather man is the one that matters most Because he can be like, "Ahh it's that crazy, Colorado weather." And I've heard it said, I've heard it said many, many times before. It's true. OK, so these people They lived in a trailer And this is true, I swear to God They lived in a trailer And uhh they probably had -- I don't even know I can't even name a number I can't even make up my own number As to the number of cats they had And this is true that - There was probably four feet of shizzats Dude - and the dude that checked it out Thought that ceiling was really low But it was the four feet of shizzats that made the ceiling look really low And it's true because I Read It In The Paper! So there was an intact cat skeleton, laying on the bed Sometimes, they'll do! They get up there and they just go to sleep forever And it's true ... 150 Schnauzers - what? I couldn't handle 2 Schnauzers let alone 150, Jesus. Dude - dude- and the dude The dude that got most busted He was talkin' to the reporter when he's in an assisted living facility, An assisted care facility And he said that the -- OH - And I forget to tell you that they found a mama cat and 8 baby cats in the freezer. And the dude said - he's like 77 and all screwed up And he said that because it was Winter He couldn't bury them So he wrapped them in plastic And he put them in the freezer He said And It was just an honest mistake and the lady at the state made a big deal out of it And that's what that muthher said. So sad to me that people get that bleeped up.

9. Winter 3:22 Music Background Vocals by jps* Lead Vocal Lyrics by David Budke I feel the call of winter's chill I feel the softness of the snow Trees are lifeless, stripped and bare Call to God when no one's there When I was a child here, I'd cry There's no more places left to hide Hearts are beating where nobody knows Life is breathing beneath every stone In a place where nobody goes In a place where the light turns to cold I pull up roots for something green I cannot bear this white serene When I was a child here, I'd cry There's no more footprints left to hide Hearts are beating where nobody goes Life is breathing beneath every stone In a place where nobody knows In a place where the life turns to gold In a place where no one knows Making angels in the snow

10. Abandon 4:25 Music, Lyrics Vocals by jps* Spoken Word performance by Leighann Gould Woman: I'm sorry I never meant to hurt you Things just happened so quickly I've got a lot of things going on right now Things on my plate I just I just don't have the room right now Really, it's my problem not yours I'm sorry I don't have much time now I have to go but Don't worry so much, we'll both be fine, you'll see ... Man: You've been breaking my heart with my mind And I've mistaken you for a real good time And I'm so embarrassed; I can't believe that I fell for you You and my love of Abandon. Don't you see I tried to love you? But instead I ran away from you! And everybody knows that life goes on and so I'm singin' you this song, help to move along the time 'Till another thing comes by ... Maybe in the next life I will treat you kind Maybe start tomorrow Maybe never mind Maybe if you knew me when I needed a friend Maybe if you knew me when the make hit the fan Maybe if you knew me again and again Abandon Don't you see I tried to love you? He died to save us all 14. Sunflower 4:13 Music, Vocals Lyrics by jps* Winter is just about over And it seems Spring is right 'round that corner It has been so dry and cold And lonely to the bone And I'm so glad it's good and Gone for about one more year Only sunshine and friends from point here No more moping around Or feeling sorry for myself It's good to see the see the sun come up! Just seems like every Winter I get so depressed, Devoid of happiness Without some one to call own ... But don't you tell me that I won't find someone - You could fall in love Any day Now So if you need me, I'll be waiting at the place where all things have beginnings ... Where the light meets the dark There's a little spark That is where I start La da da da la dad deed ah (in these passing days, Winter brings her snow with her) John Paul Sharp is a 25 y/o Recording Artist currently living in Denver.
