His music has been described as an upbeat "happy country rock" with a vocal style similar to Elvis or Tom Jones. His formal musical studies also included 13 years of voice training at the Royal Conservatory of Music (in Toronto). He began his professional career playing piano and singing as half of a lounge-duo that performed throughout Southern Ontario. He also performed for private parties, corporate functions and many coffeehouse shows. His experience in comedy/improv includes graduating from the Toronto Second City Masterclass where he co-wrote the Masterclass' final graduation show. "Human Being" (an original musical/comedy) - 1998 Human Being was unique because the actors in the play were also the musicians for the play!
