This is family listening at its best, offering up an incredible blend of unforgettable songs that will have children and parents humming along. Lana Rae is a unique singer songwriter, performer, mother, entrepreneur and former schoolteacher all rolled up into one creative force. Originally from New Westminster British Columbia, Lana Rae now resides in Whitehorse, Yukon. Her own early childhood experiences, long road trips across Canada, and life as a Mom and teacher have provided her with the perfect treasure chest of resources for her music. Blending imaginative children's themes with contemporary pop, rock and country, "I Just Want to be Little " begs to be played again and again. Hopelessly infectious tunes like, "Mud is my Bud", "Lumps in my Socks" and "Cows Wanna be Pretty Too," are guaranteed to capture the imagination of children and the young at heart! "Lana Rae's "I Just Want to be Little" is a whimsical romp of child friendly songs...avoiding the flaw that befalls so many children's artists-overblown sentimentality. Her disc is long on fun and short on syrup, which makes it a good choice for those long summer car trips!"-Richard Mostyn, The Yukon news Reporter "A great CD for the little people in all of us...good music that begs a sing-a-long and fun to listen to....cause it takes you back to when you were little too!" -Roch Fraser-CBC Radio
