Details: Little Mojo is an acoustic/rock band hailing from Des Moines, Iowa. It combines the talents of two young brothers who have been creating music together since October 1998. Without any label support, they have sold over 7,000 copies of their three previous recordings and have toured extensively throughout the United States on various national tours over the past 3 years. Little Mojo has opened up for such artists as Ben Folds Five, Shannon Curfman (young blues sensation), rap artist Coolio, as well as many others. Little Mojo's sound and style has been compared to the likes of Damien Rice, Ben Harper, Jason Mraz, Dashboard Confessional, Dave Matthews, etc. In late 2003 Little Mojo partnered up with producer Chris Hower (Radford, Baja Men) to record their first professional studio effort, the "Awake and Dreaming E.P. Key tracks on the E.P. such as Circles, Angel, and Not The Same reveal the depth of spirituality and sincere songwriting that is Little Mojo. Fronting Little Mojo is 26 year old Josh Sinclair. Since he was 11, Josh has made singing and playing the guitar a huge part of his life. Josh is a multi-instrumentalist and tastefully incorporates new sounds to the bands songs. A powerfully raspy, yet crystal clear voice rounds out the Little Mojo sound. Blending together his own imaginative style while staying deep within his creative roots, keeps Josh's love for the music as strong as ever. Nick Sinclair is the drummer, percussionist, and backing vocalist for Little Mojo. He is 22 years old and has dedicated the last 5 years of his life to playing drums in this band. He breathes life and rhythmic solidarity into the music of Little Mojo using the drumset, as well as the djembe, congas, and bongos. Nick's passion for drums and music can be seen and heard every time he picks up a pair of sticks or gets behind a microphone. His enthusiastic and exciting rhythms will always be an essential part of life and of Little Mojo's.
