Details: Only Won: Though I am only one person, I have not lost to the pressures of the world, but I've won because of the only one who is Jesus Christ. Only Won is the first bilingual Asian Holy Hip Hop artist and started rapping back in 1991 under the early influences of RUN DMC, Beastie Boys, and Holy Hip Hop pioneers DC Talk, D-Boy, JC Crew, and T-Bone. After listening to T-Bone flip it in Spanglish on the first JC Crew album, Only Won knew it was his turn to do it in Chinglish. Only Won began rapping/singing at talent shows, VBS, youth events, and eventually the Sunday morning worship services. He now serves at New Hope Community Church of Sacramento where he is currently supporting this new team with the vision of uniting all cultures and social/economic backgrounds. Only Won has shared the stage and mic with KaBUC of K2S, Deeper than Most (RMB Maximillian), Three 5 and 6, The Holy Rida, Gyasi, and Theophilis In addition to music, Only Won is a professional actor member of the Screen Actor's Guild (SAG). He has had the luxury of working with people like Ang Lee, Will Smith, Ashley Judd, Andy Garcia, Jennifer Connelly...and many more. He is also an advanced level martial artist of 14 yrs, and a professionally licensed mechanical engineer. So let's be real...Only Won ain't a gangsta...he grew up with some, played ball with some, and hung out with some time to time...but God's been good to him and kept him clean. In fact, he can be an Overachieving Geek at times...aka, the OG! But then again, he's the Lyrical Engineer...and only the Technically minded will know what I'm talkin' about here.
