FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Shawn Zuke's Bio ""Goddess Child" is a mystical journey and a beautiful example of the flavor that is found throughout her debut CD release "Of the Light". With a peaceful voice singing a universal message for all, she soothes one's soul, weaving textures of beauty through her visions of peace and serenity. Experiencing a scenic tour of a piece of Alaska, Shawn's music video is an added lovely touch." Cheri Snook.... Universal Tapestry/KVMR "Shawn's music has inspired me in my own songwriting career. She is in tune with the universe and amazingly just like a gypsy folk goddess when she sings." Lili McGovern... Singer/Songwriter "I can't decide which song off of "Of the Light" is my favorite. Right when I think I know, I hear another and become undecided again!" Fan from Nevada City, CA. These are a few words that describe Alaskan-raised singer/songwriter Shawn Zuke and her music. Her songs reflect her upbringing in the great Alaskan wilderness with her lyrics echoing a union between earth and self, body and soul, and listener and song. She never fails to draw a crowd whether she's playing guitar, flute, didgeridoo or the drums. Her vision is to raise the consciousness of herself, family and community through music, dance, and connection to the environment. Shawn is currently releasing her debut solo CD "Of The Light". Included on the CD is a music video filmed at Beluga Point, the Knik River, Mt. Denali and Girdwood, Alaska. Featured in the video is a special appearance by a special Alaskan goddess, Alex(andra) Zuke. In Alaska, Shawn performs at venues such as the Coffee Grounds, Organic Oasis, Kaladi Brothers, and Snow City Caf as well as the Anchorage Folk Festival and other folk festivals across the state. Her new CD has already received considerable air play on many Alaskan and West Coast radio stations and Shawn can now be found on tour along the West Coast (see Shawn's tour schedule at her website). For booking info: Mountain Mermaid Music
