Strong female lead R&B with classic soul and vintage hip-hop influences. 16 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Rhythm Blues, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: BIO T-Wests extraordinary vocal abilities were first noticed as a very young child, when she stunned her church congregation with strong soprano notes that would rival those of most veteran singers. She performed in several local venues and eventually joined a group as the lead singer. T-West was heavily influenced by such greats as Patti laBelle, Sade, Anita Baker, Angela Winbush, Stephanie Mills, Chaka Kahn, Luther Vandross, Prince, Michael Jackson, and Phillip Bailey. As a result, T-West has developed a unique and dominating style that integrates savvy lead vocals with limitless range, intriguing lyrics and dramatic harmonic hooks that manipulate her powerful, yet seamless trumpet-like voice. Focusing on her education, T-West sparingly performed throughout high school and college. With her bachelors degree in hand from Hampton University, she was able to make her music her top priority. T-West had her solo debut with the release of the maxi-single, COBBS CREEK PARK/NO WAY. And now, her magnificently diverse 16 track CD, I WANNA SING FOR YOU, is complete and ready for release. T-West has appeared with and/or has had production and writing collaborations with an eclectic list of pros that include: Steve Jones of Acoustic Alchemy, Diallo Moss, Walter Bell and the Latin Jazz Unit, Rhian Benson, Mario, Dwele, Goapele, Floetry, Cameo, Shocklee ent., D.O.E., Ty Gray-EI, Bobby Valentino, G-Major, Glen (Rashad) Smith, Eric (Spade) Haynes. T-West studied acting and modeling to further utilize her shapely 57, 135lb. frame and striking features. She became SAG eligible by appearing in two feature films, three television shows and a television pilot. She has modeled in several fashion shows. T-West has also written a TV Pilot. T-West has developed into a very effortless performer. Her recordings are incredible and her live performances are even more astounding. When asked of her ultimate career goal, T-West replied, To have timeless works! I want my music and portrayals to stand strong through the test of time. RESUME Empress Recordings 804.269.1332 P.O.
