Fist-pumping, melodic and highly destructive dance-rock 13 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Electro, POP: Power Pop Show all album songs: Black Sugar Transmission Songs Details: BLACK SUGAR TRANSMISSION is the brand new musical initiative of a NYC-based singer/songwriter/multi-instrumentalist called Andee. BST's self-titled debut album, described as "fist-pumping, melodic and highly destructive dance-rock" (David Adler, Philadelphia Inquirer and NY Times), is an uber-catchy, turbo-charged amalgamation of hard rock, electro, postpunk, glam and pure pop. Also featured on the album are drummers Jerry Gaskill (KING'S X) and Matt Farley (BULLY). Also check out BLACK SUGAR TRANSMISSION's cover of "The Ghost at Number One," on the just-released Jellyfish tribute album, Sensory Lullabies, on Burning Sky Records! Andee has no last name and lives in Brooklyn, New York. His last band pOp*stAr*kiDs (whose debut CD was a national CMJ chart success in spring of 2000) ruled the Lower East Side club scene with a neon-gloved fist from 1999 to 2006. He has also performed with everyone from members of Scissor Sisters and King's X to Boy George. Iconoclastic music journalist Tris McCall once noted "Andee spikes his hair like Daniel Ash but can be as refined as Peter Murphy." Guitar hero Nuno Bettencourt un-ironically called him "the future of rock and roll." Andee loves techno parties, cats, hair products, Slayer, vodka, following Madonna around the world, coffee and YOU
