Progressive rock compositions in a strong variety of sounds and textures with an international flavor. 13 MP3 Songs METAL: Progressive Metal, ROCK: Progressive Rock Details: 100 Worlds continues the progressive rock legacy initiated by Byron Nemeth's "2000" CD, this time with thirteen instrumentals with Nemeth's impressionistic guitar supported by the keyboards of Jimm Motyka, the drums of Jeff Curenton and the bass of Brian Glodde. 100 Worlds was mastered at Abbey Road Studios in London by Nick Webb, who has engineered many great albums, such as Queen's "News Of The World", Iron Maiden's "The Number Of The Beast" and many other classics. Guest artists such as Joe Deninzon (violin) and Dominick Fariacci (trumpet) also make solo appearances on the Nemeth engineered and mixed recording. Travel within a strong variety of sounds and textures with an international flavor on tracks such as "Russian Winter", "La Luz De Barcelona", "Majestic Overture" and "Tsunami Sea". Instrumental Guitar (Electric (Heavy)/Progressive/Rock), total running time, 66:33
