Texas Honky Tonk Shuffle music mixed with Western Swing and Buddy Emmons On the Steel.. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Western Swing Details: The second Curtis Potter release brings more great Texas shuffle beat songs mixed with Western Swing and beautiful ballads. This album starts off with the Dave Kirby written song "Chicago Dancin' Girls"-a great anthem for lost love in Texas..."I wish I knew less about Texas and more about Chicago Dancin' Girls!!" The shuffle continues with songs like "If You Look A Little Less" and "She's Leaving and I'm Almost Gone.". Curtis is joined by his longtime producer Ray Pennington on "A Better Way To Love." He then used the great Buddy Emmons to swing "Texas Had To Be Created" and the anthem "Twin Fiddles Turn Me On." Curtis is singing better than ever and this album proves that going to the school of Ray Price, George Jones, Willie and Merle Haggard has definitely paid off for him. His vocal range and ability to pick great material makes "Chicago Dancin' Girls" a big hit with any lover of traditional Country Music and Western Swing enthusiast! Curtis Potter is a member of the Country Music Association of Texas Hall of Fame.
