Inspirational theatrical pop, melodious easy listening crossed with Jazzy influence. Think Tori Amos Fiona Apple, then add some Dynamite and place subtly under backside. Warning: may have lasting uplifting effect 14 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, EASY LISTENING: Mature Details: I heard you: You want something different but pleasant to listen to, you like music with good melodies and heart felt passion. You want something quirky but not too weird. You want to be seduced but you like it in style. You like to relax but you don't want to fall apart. I heard you! This is it. This makes you feel goooooood inside. Feel that smile coming up. Feel your eyes sparkling again now. And relax, turn it on, it's time to be at your best. Because you can! This music gets you straight there. Diva Eve is a witty and sassy singer-songwriter here to fill your world with inspirational theatrical pop. Born in the land of the great thinkers. Poets, and car companies (Germany), the world is her oyster and she settled where the oyster card makes her world. Her music will have both sides of your brain bouncing with joy, connecting deep messages with a humorous tone and reversely revealing the dark side through sweet melodies that stick in your head like blue tack on the wall. Her warm rich voice has a seductive timbre and a bit of a range going on. Her passion for music was first discovered under the kitchen table where she was found playing the flute along to ABBA. Flute and piano lessons followed and songwriting began. The Rock-gothic band phase and a live street music tour started off her musical journey leading her to settle in London via New York. She had 5 pop CDs published, a deal with Sony music and her own one woman show in NY, performed at the Edinburgh Festival, Brighton Festival, Jazz /Cabaret/acoustic venues and theatres in London, repeatedly on BBC radio and TV. She has entertained audiences in Germany, NY and Thailand. Apparently she looks a bit like Madonna. divaeve.com music for the open-hearted WARNING: product may have uplifting effects WARNING: product contains a nutter. Suitable for Vegetarians. Diva:: Deep,
