Details: Eric and Phyllis Dhumez are a New Jersey husband and wife song-writing team. They are known as the Genuine Wanna Bees. They have their own recording studio where they create and work. In 2008, some of their pop rock tunes were produced in a professional recording studio for the album, Living Among The Stars, featuring the outstanding vocal performances of Jose Loo and Lajuan Carter. Eric has been writing music since he was a boy. He studied classical guitar under Herbert Stewart, who studied under Andre Segovia. Early in his career, Eric was a signed artist with RCA, Paris and with Saravah Records distributed by RCA. Previous to this, Eric had a band that toured his original compositions in Europe. Phyllis concentrates primarily on lyrics and interpretation and assists in some composition and arrangement. A student of poetry, she has maintained her other writing personal. Their life together has been the inspiration behind their many songs whose styles vary from pop to pop/blues rock, to bossa nova, to celtic ballads and ambient music. Living Among The Stars was co-produced by Tom Gioia for Visionary Music Group, and arranged, recorded mixed by Tom, with additional recording by Eric. The album was mastered by Andy Van Dette at Masterdisk, NYC. The performing artists include: Jose Loo - Vocals Lajuan Carter - Vocals Tom Gioia - Acoustic, Electric Bass Guitars Tom Hammer - Piano, Strings B3 Karl Latham - Drums Eric Dhumez - Additional Guitars Programming The Genuine Wanna Bees hope that you enjoy the tracks and wish you to be well and at peace.
