Built on an aggressive hard rock foundation complemented by melodic textures, and influences ranging from A Perfect Circle, Deftones and Quicksand to U2, this band has created an incredibly unique and powerful sound. 5 MP3 Songs ROCK: Hard Rock Details: "Brutal, fast, and unrelenting rock that confronts and entertains with hardcore energy." - Bernard Baur: Music Connection Magazine "One band stood out. One band from Los Angeles blew my fucking mind. H Is Orange." - Josh, LocalMusicScenes.com, Eat'M conference "You ever listen to a local band and think they should already be signed? To a major? H is Orange is a pretty exciting example of this." - Porktartare.com/sound reviews

----- The band h is orange consists of Guy Staniar on drums, Troy Brittain on guitar, Marcel Blanco on bass, Jay Skinner on guitar/laptop and Sam Nelson on vocals. The band to date has successfully and independently completed four regional tours, distributed five-song e.p. "Be Silent and Know", acquired national radio play and film soundtrack inclusion, and performed opening slots for major label acts throughout the United States. The h is orange sound is built on an aggressive hard rock foundation complimented by melodic textures and smart, well-crafted lyrics. Their closest musical references are the A Perfect Circle, Deftones, and Filter but reviewers have also compared them to "U2 with a fork in their ass". Their unique and powerful sound - combined with an explosive, emotional live show - has made them stand out from the crowd; in fact, they were named by Music Connection Magazine in December 2002 as one of the "Top 100 Unsigned Bands." With just two and a half years together, h is orange has firmly established their musical mark, but continue to evolve, with plans for a full-length CD of new recordings to be released in summer 2003. They plan to share the new songs with their fans throughout the country via a national tour in the fall. Thanks for listening.
