Details: Lara Herscovitch is captivating (Smother.net). A remarkable performer (WSHU Profiles in Folk), one hell of a find (New Haven Advocate). A unique and engaging singer-songwriter, Laras music is an original blend of contemporary acoustic/folk with pop, Latin, jazz, and blues influences. Delicious (Indie-Music.com), smart, poetic and witty, Lara masterfully (Womenfolk.net) merges soulful melodies with perfect wordcrafting (New Haven Advocate) and keen intelligence (The Chronicle). She is inspiring (Manchester VT Journal), fresh and invigorating (Music Morsels), with a voice clear and smooth like expensive liquor (Northeast Performer). Connecticut State Troubadour (2009-2010). "Her voice and performance style had me captivated right away. She truly stands out in a crowd of rising folksingers" (Valley Folk). Her songs cover a broad range of topics: love, family, justice, poverty; the more you listen, the more you will like what she does (Green Man Review); it is pure musical poetry (The Courier). Her third CD, Juror Number 13, is among the best folk releases of the year and possibly many years past. (Folk Acoustic Music Exchange), with her great and refreshing sound (Acoustic Caf).
