Laura Dare's bluesy pop songs range from thoughtful ballads to percussive groove driven ones. 15 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, BLUES: Acoustic Blues Details: Take a trip with Laura Dare's new CD Wherever You Go. The 14 song CD explores many genres with Laura's powerful, emotive vocals at the center of the ride. Jeanne Howard, of The Monterey County Weekly says of Laura's new CD, Wherever You Go, "Laura's style is grounded in blues...contains elements of country, rock, folk and jazz." Howard continues "The most important ingredient is the songwriting and this is what drives Wherever You Go. It passes the sing-along test, the goose bump test, and most importantly, the slow driving test. That's the one where I drive slowly because I'd rather listen to the songs than arrive at my destination." From the heartbreakingly beautiful title song, Wherever You Go, to the "see ya later alligator" blues rock feel of Roadbound, Dare will definitely move you! "Creativity is second nature to Laura Dare" said Tom Leyde of The Californian. Wherever You Go supports Leyde's sentiments. "...Her bluesy pop songs and breathy clever lyrics are reminiscent of Ani Defranco" wrote Vanja Thompson of the Coast Weekly. Others have compared Laura Dare's vocals to Sheryl Crow, Natalie Merchant and Joan Osborne. Although, Laura Dare has been influenced by these incredible artists and many many others, the feedback Laura receives most often is that she is an original. Treat yourself to this progressive artist's new record. It is guaranteed to move you - Wherever You Go.
