Nappie Head Phred has that abstract hip-hop sound from Cleveland, Ohio. The style is more like a combination of black and global awareness (like Public Enemy) and comedy (like Dave Chappelle). 11 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: I am a hip-hop artist from the streets of Cleveland, Ohio (hometown of Bone Thugs-n-Harmony). I've been rhyming since the age of twelve and started making demos when I was 16. My first c.d. release in 1998 was called "In my own world" under Darby Entertainment and distributed by Solar Distribution (owned by E-40's uncle Saint Charles). Due to bad promotion and marketing, "In my own world" did not succeed in record sales but I was back at the lab making more music to put out myself. In 1999 my underground self-release c.d. was called "Brother from another planet". That will be my next c.d. release that I will have c.d. baby distribute real soon. Two years later I made the c.d. "Nappadelic" which is the one of the most requested c.d. on college radio in Cleveland, Ohio. Nappadelic is a c.d. full of intellect and comedy (a mixture of Public Enemy and Dave Chappelle). Tracks like "Yo Bref Stank, J.Oing (the masterbating anthem), and Muthaphucka (feat. Mr. Cin) which is a gangsta comedy joint that will have you laughing until you cry. Songs like "Ain't phuckin' with ya'll, Speakin' my mind (feat. Big Chocolate and Dungeon Masters), and Young gods and goddesses" are songs that you can nod your head and meditate too. My club tracks are "Funky like dat and Hip-Hop is Heaven" to put you on the dance floor. All tracks are original and produced by myself except for "Speakin' my mind" which is produced and engineered by The Dungeon Masters. I'm also an excellent stage performer. Not only do I do hip-hop gigs I also perform at alternative shows as well. I've been accepted by the alternative audience more than the hip-hop audience.
