The 411 on Princess "G" Born and raised on Long Island, New York, Princess "G" gave her life to Christ at the age of seven. She now resides in the DC Metropolitan area. After her mother died, others predicted her down fall and destruction through drugs, teen pregnancy and even suicide. They said she wouldn't make it, she would drop out of school and stop going to church. She admits, she had some tough choices to make at an early age. Would she live for the Lord or become another statistic? Would she trust God and survive or fall into the cycle of sin that plagued her hometown? Princess "G" confesses that "The Lord kept me." Having developed holy boldness, she gives her talents to the service of the Lord to encourage and inspire young people to live sold-out lives for God - to be partakers in the blessings of their inheritance through Christ Jesus.
