Details: In the summer of 2007, Samba Mapangala went on tour in Canada and the U.S. for the first time in 10 years, performing in Toronto, Montreal, Milwaukee, Madison WI, Oakland CA, Roseburg OR, Portland, Santa Monica, Carlsbad and San Juan Capistrano CA, before heading for the WOMAD festival in England. Virunga's show at Yoshi's nightclub in Oakland, a jazz-club room with great acoustics and a devoted audience for African music, was one of the tour highlights, and fortunately was captured directly from the sound board for our continued enjoyment and appreciation. The red-hot touring band on stage that night was composed of an all-star cast of Congolese musicians plus the great Cameroonian saxophonist Jimmy Mvondo: Samba, lead vocal Rissa Rissa, harmony vocal and animation Huit Kilos, lead guitar Bopol Mansiamina, rhythm guitar Miguel Yamba, bass Komba Bellow, drums Jimmy Mvondo, sax Javier Navarrette, congas Here presented is a selection of music from the two sets that night, with everyone on top of their game. This recording offers an exclusive glimpse of an unforgettable evening with East Africa's most beloved singer, Samba Mapangala, impeccably edited and mastered by sound technician Douglas Paterson and now available for digital download. Sungura (Hare): The story of the hare and the tortoise: Slow and steady wins the race (Original studio recording is available from CD Baby on the Feet on Fire album) Siri (Secret): (From the Ujumbe album) Malako (Last Wish): Samba's masterpiece signature song, originally released in 1982 in Kenya. In September 2008, while in Chicago to perform at the annual World Music Festival and with the presidential election campaign in full swing, Samba, in recognition of how much Africans love Barack Obama and how proud Kenyans are of Obama's candidacy, recorded a song in his honor: "Obama Ubarikiwe." The song, released only online as a free download, immediately tore around the world on the Internet and within days was being played continuously in Kenya. The original version with a rap by 14-year-old Fanaka Ndege was followed shortly by a vocal remix featuring harmonies by Jonal Buya Lutete, formerly with OK Jazz, and a video, produced and directed by Jose Shalita and Robin Berry, released on YouTube. Recorded at Chicago's Riverside Studio and produced by Nathaniel Braddock of the Occidental Brothers and Old Town School of Folk Music, the title translates as "Obama Be Blessed." The Swahili lyrics say: Obama, leadership is a gift from God, and you have it. Please help to bring peace, change and hope to all Americans and all the world. We love you! Musicians on the session were members of Virunga and the Occidental Brothers: Siana Matuzungidi, Nathaniel Braddock, Jose Shalita, guitars Rap written and performed by Fanaka Ndege Voices: Samba Mapangala, Cheryl Kramer, Jose Shalita, D Boudreaux, Jonal Buya Lutete Saxophone: Greg Ward Trumpet: Marques Carrol Bass: Ali Msafiri Mgawe Drums: Paul Stueber Percussion: D Boudreaux Producer: Nathaniel Braddock Engineer: Eric Butkus Recorded at Riverside Studio, Chicago Remixed and mastered by Douglas Paterson All proceeds go directly to the artist to keep more great music coming.
