GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: Servola Frazier is a native of Miami, Florida. She is the daughter of Bishop Anthony Pastor Charlene Hatcher of the World of Faith Outreach Christian Center. She is married to George W. Frazier, Jr. and has three children George (III), Charles, and Daniella. Shortly, after she was born her father, who is retired military, was sent to a number of places namely Europe where she stayed for over a number of years. In Europe, her mother began to teach Servola and her brothers and sisters songs to sing for their new ministry. Years later that seed began to come forth; the desire to write and sing her own music begin to manifest in Servola. She joined FORCE, her church choir, and travel all around Germany, Belgium and Holland. She also had the opportunity to sing with FORCE at Euro Spirit in Amsterdam. Servola left Europe and went to Florida State University. At FSU she join the FSU Gospel Choir under the leadership of Tony McNeil. During her season with the gospel choir she had the opportunity to work with various recording artist such as Ricky Dillard and Donald Lawrence. She also tour with the gospel choir up the east coast of the United States. After leaving FSU, she moved to Melbourne, Florida, and answered to the call of God to sing praise and worship at the World of Faith Outreach Christian Center (WOFOCC). Within one year, she was leader of the praise and worship team, and later she became choir director as well. Currently she is ministering at the WOFOCC traveling with Bishop Anthony Hatcher and Pastor Charlene Hatcher her pastor; she has completed her first CDs the first entitled "The Nature of God" and "The Names of God." Servola is known for her willingness to flow with the Holy Spirit. God is using her to shake up the traditional arena of praise and worship by allowing the prophetic move of God to flow in the atmosphere. She is a psalmist prophetess set in order by God.
