Shamans, men closest to God, combined their gifts with rhythms, tones and chants to create a connectedness between God and His people. Soul Dean hits the scene with the same passion and connectedness once embodied by the ancient shamans. Twenty four year old singer/songwriter/producer recognizes the power of music, not only as art form, but as a source of healing. His soulful multifaceted liberal tones speak to the heart and soul of his people. Soul Dean is just that the Dean of Soul His lyrics give the listener a sense of purpose and self- love. He puts a mirror in the listeners face, while at the same time; grooves them with his gospel derived tunes. Original compositions, like Higher Feat: M1 of Dead Pres. and Mothers Child fuse elements from the church and Hip Hop sounds that groove you to a sense of cultured- liberty and self respect for our people.
