CLASSICAL: Chamber Music, CLASSICAL: Programmatic music Details: The BlackLight Bassoon

Ensemble was the brainchild of Sean Craypo and came into being in the fall of 1999. The original members Sean, Rian and Eric commissioned new works from University of Texas and other Austin composers and performed them in several venues and on the popular public radio show Eklektikos. In 2004, this trio became the BlackLight Bassoon Ensemble with the addition of members Fei Xie, Mike Muna, Abigail Jones and Adam Trussell in order to record these pieces and perform them again, especially at the International Double Reed Society's 2005 Convention in Austin. The completed CD includes twelve pieces for bassoon and contrabassoon in trio or quartet formation. All of the accompanying sheet music are available in the Store, (diabolicalgenius.com) either individually or as a set.
