Bluesy, rootsy, and broken-hearted... for the road 10 MP3 Songs BLUES: Mellow Blues, FOLK: Folk Blues Details: "Heartfelt bluesy-jazzy-folky-sexy rock (their) original music is the type that thrusts it's hand through your chest and grabs hold of your heart. It's that kind of impact that keeps the audience glued to the band." -- Patti Caron, Music Connection Magazine Broken-hearted torch songs are this vocal duo's mainstay. Sarah's pure-toned, folk inspired soprano and Dean's gritty tenor pierce the dreamy atmosphere of this 5-piece roots/blues band. The Cash Diners sound combines Dean Vivirito's blues inspired piano, Sarah Hays on acoustic guitar, roots guitarist Yohei Shikano, and Michael Mallory on bass. Their music is romantic, elegant and gritty. Like Willie Nelson with Emmylou Harris, Leonard Cohen with Jennifer Warnes, Johnny with June Carter-Cash; The Cash Diners are a duo that draws it's themes from folk-blues, gospel and honky-tonk, ragtime, jazz, and all things Americana. The Cash Diners are based in California but had the extraordinary opportunity to record this debut album at OMNI Sound Studios in Nashville, TN. They were accompanied by Ken Coomer (formerly of Wilco) on drums and percussion, Audley Freed (formerly of The Black Crowes) on electric guitar, and other incredible guest musicians such as Tim Marks on bass and Scotty Huff on trumpet and electric guitar. Recent gigs in the Los Angeles area have included House of Blues, The Mint, The Viper Room, Karma, Moonshadow, and Universal Bar and Grill.
