"In Roads" begins by laying the statistical foundation for the undeniable importance of fighting the illicit drug war. With powerful argument against the surrendering to illicit drug influx and engaging biographies of three pioneers who developed a new and dynamic style of patrolling, "In Roads" is a call to arms for the reader to engage themselves and their local law enforcement in the battle against this primary cause of all crime. "In Roads" culminates with a cross country tour from Texas to Chicago, featuring police agencies who dedicate themselves to this cause and yield tremendous results for their communities.
