This awe inspiring musical journey unveils its emotional depth as the shades of a long lost exotic landscape and the culture it supported are brought to life. Through a refined collection of analog and digital instruments, acoustic elements, and a warmth of sound, this intricate composition is very much alive and present offering the listener an inspiring view into the infinite. All music composed, performed, produced, recorded and mixed by Chad Kettering. Mastered by Steve Roach at The Timeroom. Sound Sources: Analog and digital synthesizers, samplers, piano, various acoustic sources. Chad Kettering began his musical journey as a professional trumpet player. For many years he performed with various orchestras and small ensembles throughout Texas and Colorado. Along this path Chad discovered the potentially unlimited power of pure sound as an art form through the use of electronic instruments, digital workstations and audio sound processors. Drawing upon techniques used in sound design, musique concrete and leading edge ambient music, Chad patiently developed his sound and approach over several years to emerge with a deeply personal and accomplished musical statement. Today Chad continues to push these influences into new directions. People who are interested in Steve Roach Michael Stearns Robert Rich should consider this download.
