Details: Family Til Death is headed up by CEO Lloyd Uncle Bub Washington. As a group, all the members of the label agreed upon the name Family Til Death because of their love for one another. It was in their understanding of family that helped them come to that consensus. As family they work together, play together and progress together. Anyone who has the chance to work with this label definitely knows that they are One for All and All for One. The Family Til Death crew is a unique fusion of different musical genres. Mixing everything from Jazz, Blues, R&B, Reggae, and Hip Hop just to name a few, they not only offer more than some of the other independent labels, but also position themselves for success. Family Til Death does everything in house. Equipped with its own producer, vocal arranger, vocal coach, choreographer, graphic designer, engineers, and, song writers, Family Til Deaths is to become a major record label in its native city of Philadelphia and across the world. Family Til Death would like to thank all of its supporters for their time, cooperation, love, and prayers. Special thanks to the Most High!!!!!!!
