

Mp3 Larry N. Swenson - Birds On The Run

DOWNLOAD HERE

Our recipe for great children's music is a studio full of middle-aged crazy musicians, a desire to create interesting music with pop, rock, Latino, jazz, swing, and rock and roll for young people (and adults with a young spirit), a suitcase full of bird s 15 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: There are many age-old questions. Which came first, the chicken or the egg? If a bird doesn't fly, why is it still called a bird? Do birds have lips? Why are turkeys so dumb and parrots so smart? Explore these and other questions in this uproariously hilarious new collection of international childrens' music, brought to you by your friends at Old Goat Productions. Our recipe for good, fun music is a studio full of middle-aged musicians, a desire to create fun, interesting music for young people (and adults with a young spirit), a suitcase full of bird songs we've collected from around the world. Mix it up with a little chicken and other fowl...and you've got a musical casserole that is sure to please. The table is set, come join us! Bring your boom-box! Singer/songwriter/corporate trainer, Larry N. Swenson, spends his time working with kids of all ages in countries around the world. "Birds On The Run" is a compilation of songs that have at least one bird in the lyrics. They are taken from different countries, in different languages, and put to a new, popular accompaniment in various styles that make kids want sing and dance along. Swenson, a native of Minnesota, currently lives and works between the U.S.A. and Mexico City. He was a pianist for the international musical show, Up With People, and currently writes and performs music in schools, camps, universities and even in creative corporate training programs! Produced by Old Goat Productions, Martin Digital Studios in Atlanta, Georgia.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: