Details: Requiem in Black exploded onto the electronic scene in 2006. Hailing from Denver, CO Requiem in Blacks driving dance beats and sensual vocals merge to create music unlike anything that is currently being produced. Requiem in Black has a sound all their own. It is an honor to play their music because they have such a talented songwriting style. Their compositions arent like everything else out thereit speaks to your soul. Vin KotiK, Real Industrial Radio Requiem in Black has supported London After Midnight and Destroid (Daniel Meyer from Haujobb) on their 2008 tours. Entertaining and fun to watch, Requiem in Black delivers the whole package. Requiem in Black has an established fan base and has earned the right to headline big venues such as Cervantes Masterpiece Ballroom and The Church Nightclub. With the success of their first self titled CD which was released August 4, 2007, they have already accomplished what most independent artists struggle to do. This band is amazing. They are so professional and put that extra effort into everything they do. I know they will go far in this industry." - Kelly, Black Crown Entertainment
