Romantic country ballads and modern edgy uptempo country. A little bit of the blues with a touch of southern rock. All with very clever lyrics that will have you thinking about the people in your own life. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, COUNTRY: Traditional Country Details: Songwriter Stephen Desjardins was born and raised in Rhode Island. Growing up his mother would take him to local amusement parks to watch the country shows. Listening to bands like Eddie Zack's Hayloft Jamboree is where his love of country music was formed. Listening to country songs on the radio as a teenager was another great inspiration for his love of country music. The Everly Brothers, Patsy Cline, Roy Orbison, Brenda Lee, Jim Reeves, Johnny Tillotson, were all being played in the top 40 because of the crossover appeal. Floyd Cramer's piano instrumental "The Last Date" had such an impact when he first heard the song he decided it was the piano he wanted to learn to play. Stephen is a member of Nashville Songwriters Association International and also a member of ASCAP. His songs have won national awards in song writing. His song "I Am Because Of You" was voted the #1 song for April, 2005 at VH-1 Song Of the Year Contest. "I'm Not Laughing Anymore" was voted a top 5 song at Songwriter Universe in April 2006. Several of the songs on this album have made it into the finals of national and international competitions. Stephen's songs are played on Radio Indy and at his artist page at radioindy.com/stephen-desjardins.
