About SIGNS OF LIFE: An accidental road death in London presages the collision of three lives only weeks later, in England's northeast. A young man of destiny finds himself plunged into mystery and a struggle against an infant, deaf girl's unseen and unheard enemy, one who wants her, and skills she is unaware she has, terminated. The role of sentinel is not a new one for Shona McRae but his talents have now to counter a murderous intrigue unconfined by terrestrial boundaries. It succeeded in widdowing him but in succeeding, forged the final link in a chain that will bind the spirit of his departed, African wife to the soul of the living child, Hannah Richardson. The sort of help Shona is going to need, comes, because he is a widower. And however long and tortuous the road to salvation, he, Hannah and her mother, will come to understand they have a fiercely protective, invisible companion treading it with them, one determined her arcane arts will survive her premature death. SIGNS is a tale of four cities and two worlds. A tale of conflict between virtue and vice. A tale of powerful but reluctant love, taking the romantic attachment that inevitably develops between the two young principals, Shona and Hannah's mother, Karen, and giving readers a portal onto the best of times. A tale of betrayal in whose aftermath, Karen is plunged into the worst of times. And Shona into malevolent enchantment on the other side of the world. Before Hannah's future can be secured Shona must free himself from the spell of a beautiful, corrupt sorceress with a buried, residual fragment of innocent soul, and she must enlist in his cause. Then he must prepare himself for an epic, final encounter and a journey to another plane. To the unfair contest his wife's spirit must sit out. Enjoy with Lee's people, sights and sounds of the world you know. Because, hidden between first page and last lies one you won't want to know but where, like it or not, you have to go. Its name is Hell. When you think your nerves can take more, Karen, Liezel, all of them will be back. Next time they'll have more friends, more allies, more enemies, more problems; and Hell burns hotter when The Death Manager is released on parole. So, if you're accident prone. .Book now.
