Details: Dan David, songwriter/violinist extraordinaire, started the violin at age 6. Dan has developed perfect pitch since an early age and was accepted to the McGill faculty of music on a scholarship. While classically trained, Dan has discovered his hidden gift for songwriting (in his late teens) and began writing new songs where the violin is the voice of the music and where he expanded the boundaries of the violin by combining a rock, pop and unique Celtic feel to most of the songs, all which have a genuine message to express. Dan has developed a unique style of playing and writing. Some of Dan's songs are being licensed to popular singers and artists that sell out large concert venues as well as licensed for movie soundtracks, and even method books use and license Dan's music (a new CD is coming in 2006). The music on "The Right Place" is enjoyable, whether you are listening to it with your loved ones or listening while driving, or meditating, or even while working, it enriches every moment with original and light hearted songs. Supporting this CD will also enable Dan David to release his follow up CD "There's Peace", which will feature 8-10 new songs recorded with a full band and full production.
