Debbie works in the city of Fredericton but loves the peace and quiet of the country and has chosen to live on a quiet back road. Although she loves her peace and quiet, she has a bit of an adventurous spirit and loves to travel, and ride her motorcycle every chance she gets. She also enjoys, ballroom dancing, curling, softball, swimming, walking and spending quality time with family and friends. Debbie has been entertaining on stage with her guitar since she was 16 years old. She has entertained at music festivals, fund raisers, weddings, variety shows and has also entertained a few times at the New Brunswick County showcase in Fredericton. She was a member in a local band called Double Time from 1993 to 1998, a country rock group that entertained locally in and around the Fredericton and Oromocto area. Debbie has always had a passion for music and decided that she was going to do something she has always wanted to do; write her own music and lyrics and record a CD. In February 2007, with the help of Phil Kennedy of The Record Farm in Browns Flat, and Terry Balazs, her bass player, Debbie began recording her music and lyrics. Debbie believes that everyone is born with a gift or a passion and when you apply that gift or passion, your life will feel truly fulfilled. Debbies lyrics come from thoughts, experiences and observation she has seen throughout her life. The name of her new CD is called Find My Way Back Home which is the title song. The song was written about finding your way in life and for Debbie; it was about finding her way back to her music after a long break due to a hectic schedule. Debbie enjoys different styles of music such as Country, Blues, Rock-a-Billy, Old Time Rock and Roll and Contemporary. Debbies CD represents a mix of these different styles of music.
