(Chopper McKinnon Host "Canadian Spaces" CKCU 93.1 FM Feb.02/07) "It can take a life time to sing with ones own pure sound in a voice that echoes with the gift and the journey of the artist. With his new CD, Thunder into Heaven, Doug McArthur has come into his own, singing with a subtle, lyric authority that haunts the listener long after. Each cut rings true..." Catherine Joyce Lowdown to Hull Back (Wakefield newspaper) Jan. 17/07 "At his best (Doug is) a lyricist with the poetic ability of Leonard Cohen Joe Matyas; London Free Press First and foremost, he (Doug) remains a composer of inordinately beautiful love ballads and flinty protest songs. Its that duality, that tension, that lifts his current songbook into the quiet realm of art." Craig MacInnes; Toronto Star "(Doug) is a Canadian Guy Clark." Dick Pleasants; WGBH Boston (Angels of the Mission Trail w/Jeffra) "Absolutely Haunting! CD of the year!" Dave Stafford; KKUP San Jose Congratulations to the two of you (Doug Jeffra) for doing so much for the history and heritage of California." Kevin Starr; State Librarian of California Definitely a wake up call Sandy Shore; KPIG Freedom CA (Angels) beautifully-written songs that bear up well under repeated listening. Steven E. McDonald; AMG McArthur sings memorable song after song.
