Details: Karen Manion Jazz is making a major impact on the Toronto scene by releasing her second, self-produced independent cd entitled Live at the Montreal Bistro. She has also just been awarded a contract to play in the worlds finest hotel in Hong Kong from September til years end. Here are some reviews of her second cd And to think that because of some silly heart condition of mine, I might have missed reviewing the towering talents of our northern neighbor - Canadas own jazz chanteuse Karen Manion. A true master of our beloved American Songbook, Karen brings individuality to the pop-jazz vocal style, polishing her phrasing to perfection, while at the same time delivering a vocal knockout punch to us her listeners! Karen her fine quintet are worth searching out for their challenging song choices, ingenious musical interplay, and last, the highest standard of performance. George W. Carroll, The Musicians' Ombudsman jazzpromo.com "The jazz festival season is in full swing, and some excellent new Canadian jazz albums continue to surface. KAREN MANION is one of our city's busiest jazz singers, and her new CD, Live at the Montreal Bistro, shows why. Her second CD, showcases her sultry voice and clear phrasing, and it features classic material from the likes of Cole Porter, Billie Holiday, Rodgers Hart, and Bacharach David. Karen recently launched the album with a gig at (where else?) The Montreal Bistro, while she regularly performs at The Liberty Bistro." Kerry Doole, On the Beat, Tandem Newspaper Manion is both innocent and sexy, cool and sultry. A very promising debut and it'll be interesting to see where Karen goes from here." Martin Levin, Canada's National Newspaper for Professional Women womanspost.ca She is currently the cover story feature of The Women's Post Newspaper womenspost.ca. She was also the cover story of Januarys Niagara Life Magazine, Shes performed live on Toronto television stations had a live radio broadcast on CFRB. Other articles include a cover story in St. Lawrence Downtown Toronto Community Bulletin, and appearances in Toronto Life Magazine, Toronto Star, and Toronto 24 Hours publications. Performance highlights include the Fallsview Niagara Casino and Quebecs Mont Tremblant-Intrawest Resort. Karen will be in Hong Kong from September until the years end. She has been awarded a performing contract in one of the worlds best hotels. When in Toronto, you can catch Karen and her roster of citys finest musicians at premiere jazz clubs, corporate and private functions, special events, music festivals and charity galas. Her colourful delivery and light-hearted banter makes for a lively show! Her unique approach to jazz standards allows her to solo with single accompaniment or swing with a full jazz ensemble. Her goal is to touch the audiences heart, transporting them back to a more leisurely, elegant and charming place in time.
