Beautiful a cappella harmonies on original, balkan, classical and contemporary pieces are sung by two sets of mothers and daughters, and will bring tears to your eyes, and healing to your soul.. 11 MP3 Songs
WORLD: Eastern European, FOLK: Gentle Details: Mothers and Daughters, two mothers in their 50s with their 30something daughters, weave a beautiful healing tapestry of a cappella sound from the songs of their lives - whether Balkan (Sto Mi e Milo), Classical (Salve Virgo Virginum), or contemporary (Angel from Montgomery). This little gem of an album offers wonderful songs as well as the gorgeous blend of their voices. Individually each woman has a distinct and beautiful voice, but when harmonizing together, something more than the sum of their parts floats through the air, touching all who hear. Mothers and Daughters are: Stephanie Lusak and her daughter Eva Carpenter, and Jessie Modic and her daughter Sarah McGreevy.
