Details: Original drummer for "The Samples" travels to Jamaica with acoustic guitar and drum machine to record experimental dancehall/hiphop/party music with jamaica's premiere musicians including Bounty Killer, Sly and Robbie, Michael Rose(from Black Uhuru), Dave Wakeling(from The English Beat) and many more. This album is a one-of-a-kind sonic vibe for chilling by the beach or poolside "This has been the coolest experience of my life as a musician..." says Jeep. "There is so much life and spontaneity in all of the performances....These guys are all my heros and i'm still blown away with the performances they delivered... Nothing was planned... The entire experience was like something out of National Geographic....I stayed at Cutty's house and woke up every day with him blasting tunes and toasting lyrics in his boxers....eating ackee and saltfish with Michael Rose at his place.....smoking spliffs with Dr. Innocent in Cutty's back yard under the palm trees....playing a live session with Sly&Robbie...The list goes on and on".
