DOWNLOAD HERE

Experimental compositions that are loaded with found sounds and samples, guide the listener into strange and fascinating sonic landscapes. Hilarious, peaceful, unsettling, and hypnotic. 14 MP3 Songs
ELECTRONIC: Experimental, ELECTRONIC: Ambient Details: Sonambulations is the debut solo CD from Ros Bobos. The sound compositions are made from manipulated sources that range from didgeridu to guinea pigs, radiators to medical lectures. This unique and unpredictable collection of soundscapes transport the listener into unfamiliar territory that evokes a wide spectrum of moods and lets the imagination soar like a pigeon. Ros Bobos, aka Andrew Hannah, has been creating sound art and audio collage for over ten years, composing pieces for film, video, dance, and theatre productions in the Boston area. His compositions have been broadcast on the Negativland Over the Edge Series, The Church of Subgenius's Hour of Slack Radio Program, WMFO end of radio series, WNYC New Sounds, WFMU, and more. He has composed sound collages for performances at the Mobius Art Gallery, Fishtown ArtSpace, Boston Center of the Arts, and for the Comedy Group, Grand Malarkey, which he co-founded in 1997.
