After years of grinding and building a name for themselves on a regional then national level, most of the city's elite underground players moved on to the majors in 2004. Rewind to 2002, ShowTyme Entertainment was established as a new independent record label in Houston's ever-expanding underground hip-hop scene. Within just a few years' span in the underground rap game, ShowTyme Entertainment and its artists have been representing Houston with full force. Boasting four underground mix tapes, a full roster of hot and promising talent, and a pipeline of music projects underway, the label is anxiously ready to broadcast to the rest of the world its full arsenal of banging music projects. The singles and mix tapes are already blazing the streets throughout Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Mississippi, and Alabama. The streets are loving it- anxiously waiting for the next download to be released on the website. With a positive response already being created for this young, hot label all that is left to do is transfer the buzz and hype into other markets to ultimately attract the interests of major record labels and distributors. There is no doubt that once the buzz starts spreading like wildfire the majors can only help but take notice.
