Bio 420CronicAddict Record$ is a Colorado based label specializing in the creating promoting of original music by 420 artists. In 1997 fueled by a passion for rap Thaistick began to take up freestyle rapping. Later that year he would began to write lyrics. In early 1998 Maddbeatz, inspired by Thaistick, also began freestyle rapping. He also began learning about beats. In 1999 he began to buy equipment learn how to make beats. In Sept. 1998 A young 17 year old locksmith with a brand new car hits a Traffic Light at 75mph with no seatbelt. He Lives! After reflecting on his life he decides to change his reckless ways. Well sort-of.... In May 1999 he began writing lyrics learning about the music industry. In late 1999 The Locksmith started to build a studio in his house. Working 50 hours a week as a locksmith, scraping money together to build the studio buy equipment was tough but in 2004 the studio was complete. Everything was built by the Locksmith with the help of some friends. People kept asking when the studio was being built "Is it in the basement?" so came it's name "The First Floor Studio". Though it was rough in the begining, over the years there skills emassed. With Maddbeatz (artist beat maker), Thaistick (artist), the Locksmith (CEO, artist, producer graphic designer) big plans started to form. 420 artists have came gone over the years but the 3 artists who started it all are still here: Maddbeatz, Thaistick the Locksmith(CEO). With 200 plus songs under there belts, years in the game, a local fan base that is growing, 420 is ready to blow up Nation wide. All beats are original music compositions, no samples were used. All lyrics are original compositions written by 420 artists. 420 brings a different style to the game because all 3 artists who started it are self-taught. They never received training or instruction on how to make beats, write lyrics, or record songs. The result is a style all their own. Hope you enjoy the music feel free to contact the CEO with any questions.
