COUNTRY: Alt-Country, COUNTRY: Americana People who are interested in Billy Joe Shaver Chris Knight Walt Wilkins should consider this download. Details: Early on in his career, Austin Cunningham carved out a place for himself on Music Row as a songwriter. He left his hometown of Garland, Texas in 1986 and made the move to Nashville to follow his passion for music. As a songwriter, Austin has had songs recorded by artists such as Hank Williams, Jr., Martina McBride, Dolly Parton, Wynonna, Chris Knight, Del McCoury, and the list goes on. He has songs on feature film soundtracks including Ashley Judds Where the Heart Is, and the Richard Gere/Winona Ryder film, Autumn in New York. Austin has performed at the Sundance Film Festival for the Bluebird Caf On the Road series, and a few years back, was awarded the coveted Johnny Mercer Award for Emerging American Songwriters. Although writing is Austins first passion, he is no slouch at performing, blazing a trail with live shows across the U.S. With a strong voice and some of the best guitar playing youll ever hear, he always manages to captivate his audience. Whether performing an acoustic solo, or rocking the house with a strat and a full band, it is entertainment at its best. This is just good, roots music mixed with great stories, and is getting play on XM Radios X Country, as well as many Texas Stations. Austin has four CDs available for sale: Let That Poor Boy Sing(1999) Where I Come From(2002), Music in the Money Biz(2005)and Made To Last(2008)
