Details: Seattle-based recording and performing artist, Benjamin Doerr, has music running through his veins. Musically gifted, and with an ear for the emotionally persuasive, Doerr discovered his musical bent early in life while studying piano and saxophone. Jazz influences in high school and exposure to bluegrass in college enabled Doerr to think across musical dimensions and triggered a more expansive creativity. Born in the South, raised in the Midwest, and transplanted to the city of Seattle, Benjamin Doerr's cultivated hometown artistry reminds us to connect with that part of ourselves that lives authentically. Benjamin Doerr's soulful musical debut, Sketches of a Real Life, captures the bittersweet moments of the human condition. His second album, One Door Open, releases April 3rd of this year.
