Her style of yodeling has the freshness of clean earth after a desert rain, combining the Texas's stomp, western swing, and cowboy country into her original lyrics. 8 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Western Swing, COUNTRY: Modern Country Details: When Betty Adel was nine years old she received a mustang colt for Christmas. This was her first love. They grew up together and the love became mutual. Betty and her sister Drena and Nancy and friends rode their ponies over the desert and canyons of Owyhee County, Idaho. At five both girls were singing in their parents western and Latin band. At sixteen Betty started out on her own, traveling from Hawaii to Nashville, performing at rodeos, state fairs, for politicians including then Governor Ronald Regan. She opened performances for Mil Tillis, Barbara Mandrel, Reba McEntire, Pat Boone family, Estis and others. All originals, written by Betty Adel and Helen Nanney, Betty's songs on this CD reflect her love for the trails she rode on her horse, and her love for God, our country and people. Yodeling-Music description and first verses and chorus "Betty Adel" Lyrics and music, original in part: _____ Cowboys and Rainbows like all of Betty's songs, has soul. Rainbows stand high on her horizon as beauty, and promise. She combines all three characteristics to define a cowboys life. It has the sounds of the old western classic swing. COWBOYS AND RAINBOWS V-1: Kick off your boots cowboys, toss me your hat The hard trails be-hind, you can thank me for that Hold out your arms, you can fill em with me But I'm not for-get-en a cowboy is free chorus: Cowboys and rainbows don't carry no gold They'll show you their colors and capture your soul And if it starts rain-en they'll promise the sun When you start toward them, there fast on the run more V2 and V3 _____) 2006 Oreana Enterprises Helen Nanney ...
