A double CD (one in the studio in LA and one live while on tour in Hong Kong) featuring original music ranging from bebop and ballads to the avant-garde, and a standard each by Monk and Ellington. Nearly two hours of creative, burnin' jazz. 20 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Bebop, JAZZ: Free Jazz Details: David Borgo - tenor and soprano saxophones David Ake - piano Todd Sickafoose - acoustic bass Mark Ferber - drum set Saxophonist David Borgo has been performing jazz and improvised music for over 20 years. He won the 1994 International John Coltrane Competition and has toured throughout Europe, Asia, Latin America, and the United States. He currently is the Director of Jazz at the University of California, San Diego.

Reviews of With and Against: "There's a lot of Dexter Gordon and Wayne Shorter in Borgo's generally warm sound, along with [Sam] Rivers and the inevitable influence of John Coltrane. In other words, another modernist with a large record collection, big ears, and like-minded colleagues." -- Stuart Kremsky, Cadence "He's got a melodic flair, yet is not afraid of stepping out a bit and blowing some hard edged harmonics on tenor ... There's a wonderful energy running throughout ... This is great music played with passion by great players. Highly recommended." -- Michael Bettine, Jazz Now Magazine
