"Auditory excrement" - DAILY BLAB, "A pretentious cacophony" - ROLLING STONED, "Aural salt-peter" - THE TRAGIC HIPSTER, "Diarrhea inducing drive!" - CLYDE DAYFIST (AIR WRIST UH RECORDS), "Rotting tripe for the ears" - GOD LOVES AMERICA BEST NEWSLETTER - 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Americana, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: IS NOTHING SACRED?! As overused as it may be, "eclectic" is nevertheless the only way to describe NECK STOP - 11 originals and 1 cover from HOO WUT Y. Singer and multi-instrumentalist RUSS LAKE called on 14 San Francisco Bay Area friends including guitar wizards MIKE SCHERMER (MARIA MULDAUR) and LAURA CHAVEZ (LARA PRICE BAND), honking saxophonist KEITH CROSSAN (TOMMY CASTRO) and evocative violinist ANNIE STEINHARDT (PELE JUJU) to help flesh out his songs that span Rock, Americana, Funk, Roots-Country, Surf, Novelty and Retro Pop. A long-enduring music biz tradition has been to pressure musicians and their material to fit into just one style or format. A few artists like BECK and PETER GABRIEL have fought hard for the freedom to do whatever moves them at any given moment and their fans are the richer for it. Downloading and personal digital players, have given aficionados a way to loosen the grip of short-sighted companies that limit both the artist's creativity and fan's enjoyment. "Like a lot of people I enjoy a wide variety of music and I've noticed that some folks mix it all up on their iPods. Taking that as my cue made this project a really satisfying labor of love and I think that comes across on the CD." Take a listen and see if you agree. Augie Brown March, 2005
