Yiddish Rock is alive and well as The Alter Rocker takes one Yiddish word spins a funny tale around it in English. Then brings the whole thing home with Rock N Blues music and it is a scream. Songs about Jewish Food, Bar Mitzvah, and Moshiach. 9 MP3 Songs WORLD: Judaica, ROCK: 60's Rock Details: Like the pig on the cover (we are not related) this CD brings home the bacon or in this case the Schmaltz. A Jewish Jimmy Buffett. Seinfeld, Will Grace, Dharma Greg, The Nanny, Dick Van Dyke Show, and Carol Burnett Show all have something in common with "Don't Eat Pork". They use Yiddish words that became American slang as common as the bagel. Each Yiddish word is punch line to a hilarious comic bit. With "Don't Eat Pork," "Don't Ogle My Kugel" and "Bupkus Blues" a Yiddish word is a set up for a hilarious song. The lyrics are the "bit" These songs are not parodies, The Alter Rocker wrote songs for some of the music industry biggest artists. Additional songs Here's To Bubby and Zadie, Bar Bar Mitzvah and My Child are about Bar Mitzvah And then there is the pig on the cover! When you purchase the CD, e mail us from our web site and we will send you a free refrigerator magnet.
