A delicious roots rock and R&B gumbo spiced liberally with Mardi Gras second line rhythms and funk-fried bayou magic. This ain't Zydeco, ya'll. This is true-blue New Orleans Rhythm and Blues. 11 MP3 Songs

BLUES: Rhythm Blues, BLUES: Rockin' Blues

Details: "Jesse Moore's new CD "The HooDooMan" is a winner! He is a fine songwriter and the production is excellent." Tom Morgan, Host-The New Orleans Show WWOZ New Orleans Radio "Jesse Moore is a consummate performer with a heart of soul, rhythm blues gumbo stirring things up on every stage I've ever seen him entertain on. His grooves are deep and they only get deeper and funkier as the night goes on." Mike Moss, Organizer-Blues 2000 Festivals

There are plenty of those grooves on Jesse Moore's new cd "The HooDooMan" and they come in lotsa red hot flavors: there are elements of swamp blues ("When the Hoodoo Come Down"), New Orleans funk n' fun ("Teenie Weenie Woman"), reggae ("Peace Of Mind"), alt rock ("Decisions"), R&B ("Wrong Kinda Woman"), and funky roots rock (the Little Feet-esque "Mendin Ya Wayz"). Throughout it all is the New Orleans perspective, the second line sensibility. And of course...magic!
