Afro-Peruvian Jazz performed by two of the great masters. 8 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Latin Jazz, JAZZ: World Fusion Details: Jazz guitar phenomenon Andrés Prado is joined by master bassist Enrique Luna on this brilliantly passionate album. Blending Prados native Peruvian rhythms with Lunas eclectic jazz styling, Jazz Imagery weaves in and out of contemporary jazz with eight original compositions. Dancing between cultures, songs like Nostalgico reveal the underlying subtleties of todays Brazilian rhythms, while City Blues journeys into the jazz scene of 1960s New York City. Tipping their hats to legends like Ornette Coleman and Thelonious Monk with compositions titled after their inspirers, the Luna/Prado Connection is steeped jazz history. Two extraordinary musicians come together on their first recording for RPM Records to set the groundwork for a life long journey in foraging new territory in the world of contemporary jazz.
