Upbeat music for children 11 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop Details: These songs are very close to my heart because they were written for my baby while I was pregnant. Mine was a high-risk pregnancy, so I wanted to be able to tell my baby my thoughts, feelings and beliefs. I realized how many messages were in the songs and how deep the lullabies were long after I had written them. My son, JJ, understands these concepts. I wanted him to have this understanding, especially if something were to happen to me. I had always wondered if familiar music would lull a baby to sleep, and now I know that it can. I guess that's why there are songs called lullabies. I brought this music to the hospital with me when I gave birth and played the lullabies the very next day. My son is now 16 years old and still knows all the words. JJ and I are very excited to share these songs with you in the hope that they will be enjoyed as much as we have enjoyed them. May all your dreams come true.
