Sync-Driven dance, sexy hip-hop, and pop with jazzy moments. This group makes a statement and has fun combining melody, harmonies and hard funky guitar and snare beats. 9 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Dance, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details: PASTACHO is pronounced pa-stock-oh. The name was an inspiration of the members, all who joined together from all different walks of musical life. Pastacho is the earth, the moon, the wind, and the stars. In short-It's Magic. The members banded together as a musical entity for the love of it, having worked as individual artists but looking for the right combination. After one experimental recording session everyone knew that feeling and flow opened into a portal of music that has no boundaries. PASTACHO is - Kristin Marie, a sexy 19 year old Jersey Girl living in Manhattan, singing and experiencing life and love. She's done everything from off-Broadway, to dance to MTV. Binky "CEO" is a rapper from Pittsburgh, PA who had his share of hard times. After recovering from being shot, he's devoted his life to his music and the band. He's inspired by his fans. Danny B., one of the writers and producers sings from the heart and loves to influence group sound with hard beats a soft touch and great melodies. Paul Drago, from Jamaica Queens who also produced and wrote the tracks can't rest until each note is in it's right place, inspired by Marvin, Smoky and Eddy and David and Teddy. Baron Raymonde's sax (from Dallas) has been with Mary Wilson (Supremes), the Blues Brothers and Rod Stuart's Band. Henry Gonzalez is the final piece of the inspiration, a NYC DJ and re-mixer, he guides the band through the Den of Dance, the Trip of Trance and the undercurrent of the Underground. The collaboration "leaves the EGO's outside the door". PASTACHO says: "This CD is from us to you "
