Jangling guitars, fuzzed out vintage synths and one of the most unique, brawny voices around. A songsmith like you haven't heard before. 12 MP3 Songs POP: New Wave, ROCK: Math Rock Details: Petkau is standing next in line to wave Winnipeg's flag as a hotbed for literate and crafty DIY songwriters. This hard-touring songsmith is blurring the lines between bitter and sweet, balls-out indie rock and heartfelt laments. Poetry is poison. "Don't Say A Word" finds our boy championing a quick and cutting anthem only to turn it on its head with a morose soundscape. His broad shoulders matched only by his voice, Petkau is cutting a direct line to your heart. The feelings are getting fuzzy. How many broken relationships fall between the lines of a conversation that no one wants to have? How many times are we betrayed by another's lack of confidence, by our city's spinelessness, by our lover's indifference? Like images, the true meaning of words is ultimately found in the negative-space. In what wasn't said. Don't say a word.
