Details: Portion Control are a British electronic and industrial band formed in London in 1980. The band calls its music style electropunk or hard rhythmic electronics. They are one of the most famous obscure electronic music acts in the world and have been honored and name checked by the likes of Depeche Mode, Skinny Puppy, Front Line Assembly, NiN Orbital. Portion Control is now highly active and creating innovative, uncompromising electronic audio After their return in 2004 they have self-released a stream of critically acclaimed CD's and EP's as well as actively presenting their live transmissions at festivals such as Tinnitus Festival (UK), Reverse Forward festival (Germany), Wave Gothic Treffen (Germany), BodyBeats Festival (Belgium) to name a few. Now Portion Control teams up with Sigsaly Transmissions to release this two-disc 6 page digipak release. CROP which includes a compilation of material from 2004-2008 as well as an CD EP of reworked and new material. With release on Sigsaly Transmissions CROP will be the first Portion Control product to be comprehensively promoted and distributed, hopefully exposing their influential sound to new listeners.
